Chapter 1 by Umshmihle Is awesome

They were special. They ran together. To them it was flying. And only they understood. Together in there run down world. It was a special place. Like a portal. But different. It could change. every time they would go a new surprise would await. Always on the lookout they would impatiently wait until they could finally vanish into their imagination. One day it took them someplace they never could have ever imagined. Their lives would never be the same.
